Intermittent Living Coach License

€9.95 per month

You may be wondering why the Intermittent Living (IL) coaching title has a license attached to it. IL is a .concept that needs to be constantly updated. The concept is strong and scientifically well founded, but it is not ready yet. It will only be ready when all the people who are trainers faithfully use the protocols. As a result, we get a lot of data (big data) that can ensure that the concept only gets better. Processing this data and updating it requires a lot of time and energy.

If we want to be strong as a discipline, we also need to make sure that there is some kind of control. Of course people don't like to be controlled, but it is necessary to protect a great project from scientific abuse.

The license guarantees the preservation of quality, continuous modernization and scientific review. The license is made for people who want to be IL coaches and also want to use it in daily practice. The costs are really minimal (€9.95 per month) and you get a lot in return. A presentation for the end user, a brochure for lay people and refresher courses where you only have to pay 50% of the costs.

Together, the license offers many advantages for you as an individual and certainly for the IL family of trainers. Together we can ensure that the modern human being stays healthy or regains health in a simple and feasible way without the need for many natural or conventional substances.

Let's make this project as big as we can together with as many IL trainers as possible. It is worth being a member of the International Institute of Intermittent Living under the auspices of the Pruimboom Institute.

It is a gift to be able to do so much with the help of nutrition, exercise, cold and other hormone stimuli, which in principle cost nothing more.
